ST Microelectronics will showcase Yanzi at Embedded World and Mobile World Congress 2013.

Yanzi will display the latest Internet-of-things technology in the ST Microelectronics booth at Embedded World in Nurnberg, Germany February 26-28 and the Mobile World Congress in Barcelona simultaneously. We have connected the two ST Microelectronic booth´s wirelessly and will be able to demonstrate a number of new innovative Internet-of-things services, for example to switch on/off the lights from one booth in the other.

Welcome to visit us in the ST booth at Embedded World in hall 4 / 4-140 and the ST booth at Mobile World Congress in congress hall stand 7E110.
